Rodeo Slated for August 2, 3, 4

Parade to Spark Show
$1,500 In Prizes Due

This year’s Panola Rodeo, scheduled for August 2, 3, and 4, promises to be a thrilling event, with a parade and show that will capture the attention of the local community. The event features an impressive lineup of prizes, totaling $1,500, which are sure to attract participants and spectators alike. The rodeo organizers have worked tirelessly to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all involved.

First Methodist Sets
Summer Youth Plans

First Methodist Church has announced its plans for a summer youth program, which includes a variety of activities designed to engage and entertain young people during the break from school. The program will feature workshops, educational sessions, and community service projects, offering a range of opportunities for personal and social growth.

Miss Feemster Added
To Panola Faculty

The Panola College faculty has welcomed Miss Feemster as a new member, bringing fresh perspectives and expertise to the institution’s academic community. Miss Feemster’s contributions promise to enhance the quality of education offered at Panola College, making it an exciting time for current and future students.

Seattle Safari Wins
Friends Along the Way

Seattle Safari, known for its adventurous trips and unique experiences, has gained a host of loyal friends throughout its journey. The safari company’s commitment to providing unforgettable expeditions has earned it a dedicated following, with travelers returning time and time again for more unforgettable adventures.

Wid overwhelmed with the news today, the community celebrates Miss Feemster's addition to the Panola College faculty, a testament to the institution's dedication to excellence in education.

W.H. Develin Victim of Accidental Drowning

W.H. Develin, a beloved member of the community, tragically lost his life in a drowning accident. The incident occurred at an area known for its deep and fast-flowing waters. The family and friends of W.H. Develin are commemorating his life with a gathering and a solemn prayer service to honor his memory.

The rodeo will be held in Panola's historic downtown square, with performances featuring rodeo riders, clowns, and live music. The parade will kick off the festivities, attracting a crowd of enthusiastic spectators ready to cheer on the participants. Stay tuned for more updates as the rodeo approaches.

Local Riding Club Plans
Trail Ride

The Panola Amateur Riding Club has announced its plans for a trail ride on July 30. The event will offer riders an opportunity to explore the rugged beauty of Panola Country, with a designated route that promises to test their horsemanship skills. The trail ride is open to all riders, providing a chance for enthusiasts to connect with nature and each other.

"It was an honor to have served as a judge at the recent rodeo in Panola County," said Miss Feemster, "My experience in the industry has taught me the importance of creating safe and enjoyable environments for riders and their horses. I am thrilled to be part of the Panola College faculty and look forward to contributing to the growth of its academic programs.
