CIVIL RIGHTS AGITATION

Civil Rights agitation is upon us. Why not let's do something about it? The government is not going to do anything. They don't understand. They do not know how to handle the situation. The situation is so complex and involved that they cannot possibly do anything about it. But we can. We can band together and do something about it. We can do something about it ourselves. We can do something about it ourselves. We can do something about it ourselves.

We must do something about it ourselves. We must band together and do something about it. We must not let the government do it for us. We must not let the government do it for us. We must not let the government do it for us.
