The January 18, 1885 edition of the Galloway News features articles on local events and advertisements. The issue includes a story on the passing of a former Galloway Lady who passed away in San Marcos, Texas. There is also an advertisement for Cash Taken at Martin's Station. The back page of the newspaper features a large advertisement for "Last Chance Red Hot Special" with prices on items such as 1965 Chevrolet for $2046. The ad also promotes other special deals and items for sale. The ad is eight columns wide with black and white text and images. The edition also features ads for Fair Play News, Beall's, and a local resident turns inventor.
