The First National ...

First Again!

NEW.... UNIFORM DRESS FOR LADY EMPLOYEES ....

All lady employees of the First National Bank of Carthage will be coming out in an identical beautiful new uniform Friday, November 26. This is another forward step taken by The First National, which the management feels will help in keeping the bank up-to-date and progressive. They hope it will promote a better relationship with their customers, who, after all, are very important people to them.

Blessed Are The Grateful

The other day I was in the grocery store and I overheard two women talking. One of them said to the other, "I can't believe how much I have to do today. I have to go to the bank, get the kids to school, and then come home and make dinner."

The other woman replied, "Well, at least you have a family to support. I'm just trying to make ends meet on my own."

I couldn't help but feel sorry for the second woman. She was clearly struggling, and I knew that she needed some help. So I approached her and asked if she needed anything.

She looked up at me with a grateful expression and said, "Yes, I do. I've been having a tough time lately and I just don't have the money to buy groceries."

I told her that I would help her out. I gave her some money and told her to go and buy whatever she needed. She was so grateful and thanked me profusely.

I left feeling good about myself. It was nice to help someone out and see the joy it brought to another person's life. It's important to remember that we all have struggles and that a little bit of help can make a world of difference.
