Antioch News
By MRS. C. E. ORLANDO

ANTIOCH—The 1st and Mrs. E. R. H. Darby and Mrs. E. N. Stoddard hosted the 1st annual Lions Club dinner on Saturday night at the Antioch Hotel. The Antioch Lions and auxiliary members were present. The dinner was attended by over 50 guests. The program included music, entertainment, and a silent auction. The event was a great success and raised funds for a local charity.

Panda Monuments

HOMER GRIEVE—One of the major highlights of the display of the Panda's Country Art Museum is a reproduction of the original Titanic. It was donated to the museum by Mrs. Florence Hall. It was restored by Cal Brown, an employee of the Titanic in New York City.
