All Teeth Cannot Be Seen

"I will have to know how to find the others."

Each day we have people take their children to the dentist. We are told that there are many who do not need dental work. It is hard to find these people in a very clean room. Few who cannot be conclusively said to be in need of help should be refused help. But the price of the dental aid must be high. It is hard to find these people in a very clean room.
