Economically Decision

The annual decision for the 1957-1958 school year has been made. The result is not a happy one for the county, but there is no way to avoid it. The Board of Education must increase the tax levy to cover the increased costs of the schools.

And Back To Normal

The political parties have come out of their convention in recent days. The Republican party has nominated John A. W. Smith for the governorship and John H. W. Smith for the lieutenant governorship. The Democratic party has nominated John A. W. Smith and John H. W. Smith for the governorship and lieutenant governorship, respectively.

Escaping Oratory

The political parties have also released their platforms. The Republican party's platform is centered around tax cuts and reduced government spending. The Democratic party's platform focuses on increased government spending and social programs.

Unforgivable Sin
