Panola Enters Drama Festival

Youth-serve Judge, Teens auditioned for parts in school play. The Panola Drama Club is planning to present its spring production of a comedy this month. "What's Not to Love," is the title of the play. The play will be produced by the club under the direction of Mr. Smith. The play is hoped to be the first in a series of plays produced by the club. The club is planning to produce two more plays, "The Music Man" and "The Sound of Music," before the end of the school year.
