Panola County Population Growing Younger

The population of Panola County is growing younger, with the median age of residents decreasing over the past decade. This trend is attributed to several factors, including increased educational opportunities and the attraction of younger workers in the local economy. The county's agricultural and industrial sectors are both expanding, which has led to increased job opportunities for younger people.

County Voting Sites Set For Amendment Ballot

The Panola County Board of Elections has announced the locations for the upcoming amendment ballot. Voters will be able to cast their ballots at the Following locations: Public Library, Town Hall and City Hall. The ballot includes amendments to the county's charter and budget. It is important for all eligible voters to participate in this election to ensure the representation of the county's needs.

Family Reunion Held In Antioch

The annual Antioch Family Reunion was held last weekend, attracting a large crowd of relatives from across the country. The event featured traditional family activities, music, and food, providing an opportunity for attendees to reconnect and celebrate their shared heritage. The reunion provided a platform for members of the family to come together, share their stories, and strengthen their bond.

New College Club Eyed

A new college club is being planned for Antioch, aiming to provide a platform for students to connect and participate in extracurricular activities. The club will focus on promoting diversity, inclusivity, and community involvement, offering a range of events and initiatives to engage students. With the support of the local community, the club seeks to foster a sense of belonging and provide opportunities for personal growth and development.
