TWELVE TO COMPETE
Panola Queen To Be Selected Friday

Miss Panola County will be crowned Friday night at the annual Panola County Queen's Pageant to be held at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Three local and two statewide pageants will participate.

First, the Panola County Queen competition, which will be followed by the Miss Mississippi Queen competition.

The third pageant will be the Miss America Pageant, which will be held at the high school auditorium.

A variety of musical numbers and dance routines will be performed by the contestants, who will also answer questions on a variety of topics.

Trophies and prize money will be awarded to the winners, with the overall winner receiving the title of Miss Panola County Queen.

The event promises to be an exciting night of pageantry and entertainment for all in attendance.

The Panola County Queen Pageant is an annual tradition that attracts participants from across the state and beyond.

Local and statewide pageants will compete for this prestigious title, with the winner going on to represent Panola County in future pageants.

The event is sponsored by the Panola County Chamber of Commerce and is open to the public.

Tickets are available at the door and can be purchased in advance online.

We hope to see you there and wish all the contestants the best of luck in their pursuit of the crown.
