QUESTIONS I GET ABOUT U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

BY S. MURPHY

1. Q. How do I get my money out of my U.S. Savings Bonds in a hurry? A. You can sell your Bonds at face value to a private investor or to the bond company. However, you will lose some of the interest you could have earned if you had held them for a longer period.

2. Q. What is the interest rate on U.S. Savings Bonds? A. The interest rate is determined by the Treasury Department and changes periodically. You can check the current rate on the bond company's website.

3. Q. Can I buy U.S. Savings Bonds with my own money? A. Yes, you can purchase U.S. Savings Bonds with your own money. They are available in denominations of $50, $100, $500, and $1,000.

4. Q. Do U.S. Savings Bonds pay interest? A. Yes, U.S. Savings Bonds pay interest semi-annually. The interest rate is fixed at the time of purchase and is not subject to change.

5. Q. Can I cash in my U.S. Savings Bonds at any time? A. Yes, you can cash in your U.S. Savings Bonds at any time, but you will lose some of the interest you could have earned if you had held them for a longer period.

Advising the public about the benefits of U.S. Savings Bonds.

Layaway Plan

Champlin Purchases Continental Gas

Champlin Petroleum Company has acquired the assets of Continental Gas Corporation in Carthage, Texas. The plant manager of Continuous Gas Company, Honey Street, will be the manager of the new Champlin plant.

Consignments of the plant will be handled by Champlin officials. Champlin officials said they expect the plant will be transferred within two months. Mr. Russell has been employed by Champlin since 1940.

A new store opening will be on December 1st.
