FAIR IMPARTIAL LAW ENFORCEMENT IS WHAT I PROMISE

JOHNNY BLAIR

I always promised that I would be fair in my enforcement of the laws. There is no effective way of doing law enforcement, there is no way of doing law enforcement, there is no
corporation like a police, a sheriff, etc., we do the best we can. However, I promise that I will do the best I can.

Panola General Receives Accreditation

FOR TENTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Panola General has been accredited by the Joint Commission, an independent and accredited organization that evaluates and accredits more than 20,000 health care organizations and programs in the United States. This accreditation is a significant achievement that indicates Panola General’s commitment to providing high-quality patient care.

Panola General has met all the quality standards set by the Joint Commission, which is a testament to the hospital’s dedication to improving patient outcomes and ensuring the safety and well-being of its patients. This accreditation is a reflection of the hospital’s ongoing efforts to meet the highest standards of care and to continuously improve its services.

Panola General’s accreditation by the Joint Commission is an important milestone that underscores the hospital’s commitment to excellence in patient care. It is a recognition of the hospital’s dedication to providing the best possible care to its patients and to meeting the needs of its community.

Panola General is proud to be a leader in providing quality healthcare services to its patients and is committed to maintaining its accreditation status to ensure ongoing improvement in patient care.
