City’s Sewer Line 90 Per Cent Faulty

City Manager Paul Hay's recent report to the city council indicates that the city’s sewer line is 90 per cent faulty. Hay has recommended that the city begin negotiations with Georgia-Pacific to resell the land to the city for use as a location for the new sewage treatment plant. The city hopes to have the plant operational by the end of the year.

Georgia-Pacific, Hay, and city officials are meeting with representatives from Georgia-Pacific to discuss the feasibility of the proposal.
