City Takes First Step

Toward New Master Plan

The first meeting of a planning group, called the Powell Group, was held last night in the City Hall. The group, which is made up of residents from various parts of the city, met to discuss the need for a master plan for the city. The group is hoping to work with the city council to develop a plan that will guide the growth and development of the city.

Tax Income Shows Rise

The city's tax income for the current fiscal year is expected to exceed expectations. The treasurer of the city has forecasted an increase of 10% over last year's income. This is good news for the city, which has been facing budget shortfalls in recent years.

Hebert Named Chairman of Banker's Committee

Hebert, a local banker, has been named chairman of the Banker's Committee. The committee is responsible for the development of the city's financial growth. Hebert is expected to work closely with the city council and other officials to ensure the financial success of the city.

Feed Prices Kill Chicken Production

The high cost of feed is killing chicken production in the area. The chicken farmers are facing a difficult decision of whether to continue producing chicken or to switch to other crops. The farmers are concerned about the future of their business and the economic impact it would have on the city.

East Texas Poultry Raids Hard Hit

The recent poultry raids in East Texas have had a significant impact on the local poultry industry. The raids have caused a shortage of poultry products, which has led to higher prices. The local farmers are working towards finding a solution to this problem.

Nash's 'The Rainmaker' First in College's Fine Arts Series

Nash's 'The Rainmaker' was the first in the College's Fine Arts Series. The series is designed to bring world-renowned artists to the city, promoting the arts and culture. The series is expected to attract people from all over the state.

PANOLA COUNTY THIS WEEK

Local Hospital Accredited For One Year

The local hospital was recently accredited for one year. The accreditation is a sign of the hospital's commitment to providing quality care to its patients. The hospital is expected to continue to work towards improving its services and expanding its facilities in the future.

Vincent Retires From ASCA

Vincent, a local ASCA member, has retired from the organization after serving for many years. Vincent has been a valuable member of the ASCA, and his contributions to the organization will be deeply missed.

Local residents are encouraged to support their local businesses and community events. The local businesses are an important part of the community and help to drive the local economy.
