THE LOCAL SCENE

Something To Do

Can't Do Worse

The local scene is dreary with news about the latest local events. In a nearby town, a new restaurant opened, but people say it's just average. In another, a festival is planned, but few are interested.

The weather is gloomy, with rain expected all week. This is the time of year when everyone wishes they could do something different.

Best Wishes

Grassroots

The community is working towards a better future. In one area, a group is pushing for a new park, and in another, a festival is being planned.

The news is slow, with few events happening. However, the community is coming together, with events planned for the weekend.

Out Of The Past

From the files of...

Of course, the newspaper is filled with stories from the past. One is about a famous local who is now away, and another about a past event that is still talked about. These stories always bring back memories of a simpler time.

THIS WEEK'S

Sunday School Lesson

Reverence For Human Life

Deuteronomy 27:15-20: "Stand in this place and see the multitude of our Lord God, the heavens above, and the earth below." (v. 15)

Deuteronomy 27:21-22: "And you shall pronounce bless in the land which your Lord, the Lord your God, gives you. You shall proclaim blessing upon the land, upon your hosts, upon your corn and wine, upon your oil and balm, upon the fruit of your ground and the fruit of your vine, in the land of which you shall dwell forever." (v. 21-22)

These verses emphasize the importance of reverence for human life, recognizing God's involvement in all aspects of life on earth.

The verses also speak to the importance of giving thanks and blessing to God for the gifts given to us, acknowledging that all that we have is a result of divine providence. The lesson encourages us to reflect on our own lives and consider the blessings we receive, whether they be material or spiritual.

In conclusion, Deuteronomy 27:15-22 teaches us to maintain a reverent attitude towards human life and to give thanks for the many blessings we receive. This lesson reminds us of our dependence on God and the importance of acknowledging His role in our lives.

On July 4, 1776, the idea of freedom rang out across this nation, calling men and women to the cause of liberty and justice for all. Today, we are proud of the founders of our country, as well as all those who have served in our military. Let's keep freedom ringing, America!
