Double Ring Ceremony Unites Local Couple

Southlake's first marriage ceremony was held recently in the town's new City Hall. The ceremony was held in a beautiful setting with the ceremony processional music of the Southlake High School Band providing a festive background. The ceremony began with the exchange of rings between the bride and groom, followed by the formal presentation of the couple by the best man and maid of honor. The couple then signed the marriage certificate, and the officiant pronounced them husband and wife. The guests present were treated to a delicious reception at the adjoining City Hall Plaza, which included a variety of finger foods and drinks.

Platform Solei Shoes: The Fashionable Fall

With the arrival of the fall season, Platform Solei Shoes has introduced a new line of stylish footwear that is sure to make a fashion statement. The collection features a variety of designs, including ankle boots, pumps, and sandals, all made from high-quality materials. The shoes are available in a range of colors, including rich browns, deep reds, and classic blacks, and are designed to complement any outfit. The shoes feature comfortable cushioned insoles and are made with durable soles that provide excellent traction. The collection is perfect for the fashion-conscious individual who wants to stand out from the crowd.

Northside Watchmen: For and about WOMEN

The Northside Watchmen magazine is pleased to announce the launch of its new feature, "For and about WOMEN." This section highlights the achievements and contributions of women in various fields and professions, from politics to the arts. The first article in the series features an interview with Mrs. Margaret Thompson, a renowned artist who has won numerous awards for her paintings. In the interview, Mrs. Thompson discusses her inspiration and the importance of art in our society. The section is a celebration of women's talents and contributions, and we hope it will inspire and educate our readers.

Miss Hooper, Golden United In Marriage

Miss Joanne Hooper, a graduate of Southlake High School, was united in marriage last weekend to Mr. James United. The ceremony was held at the Southlake Country Club, with the Reverend Dr. David Cooper officiating. The couple exchanged vows under a canopy of white flowers, and the guests present were treated to a delicious Reception. The bride was wearing a beautiful white gown, and the groom was dressed in a sharp suit. The ceremony was followed by a wonderful reception, which was attended by many friends and family members. The couple is planning a honeymoon in the Caribbean, and they wish to thank all those who shared in their special day.

McCormack's Together 50 Years

The McCormack family celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last weekend with a wonderful celebration that included family members and friends from all over. The couple was married in 1973, and they have raised three children together. The celebration included a special dinner at the Southlake Country Club, where the couple was presented with a beautiful anniversary cake. The guests present were treated to a wonderful evening, filled with memories and laughter. The couple wishes to thank everyone who shared in their special day.

Miss Massey, Addresses Club

Miss Emily Massey, a member of the Southlake Women's Club, was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the club. In her speech, Miss Massey discussed the importance of community involvement and the role of women in making a difference. She shared her experiences as a volunteer at the local food bank and urged the members to get involved in their community. The speech was well-received, and the members of the club were inspired by Miss Massey's words.
