County Drops New Tax Program

The operator of the Polk County Tax Collector’s office has received a new system that will allow for the efficient processing of tax returns. The new system, which has been implemented by the state, will allow for the collection of taxes more effectively and accurately. Additionally, the new system will provide for the tracking of tax payments, making it easier for taxpayers to ensure that their payments are on time. This new system is expected to improve the overall efficiency of the Tax Collector’s office, making it easier for taxpayers to complete their tax returns and pay their taxes on time.

Local Guard Unit Reorganized

The Polk County Local Guard Unit has undergone a major reorganization. The unit, which is a reserve component of the state’s National Guard, has been consolidated into the Florida Army National Guard. The reorganization will allow for a more efficient and effective use of the unit’s resources, enabling them to better support the needs of the community.

Deputies Continue Search For Galloway Assailants

The search for the individuals responsible for the assault on Deputy Galloway continues. Despite the efforts of the Polk County Sheriff’s Office, the identity of the assailants remains unknown. The Sheriff’s Office is urging anyone with information to come forward and assist in the investigation.

SWEPCO Unions Remain On Strike

The strike by the SWEPCO union members continues, with no resolution in sight. The union members are demanding better working conditions and higher wages, and they have refused to return to work until their demands are met.

Panola College Enrollment Up

Panola College has seen a significant increase in enrollment this year. According to the college’s director of admissions, the increase is due to a combination of factors, including improved marketing efforts and the college’s reputation for providing high-quality education.

PCCC Lauds Local Lawmen

The Polk County Criminal Justice Commission has praised the local law enforcement officers for their dedication and commitment to the community. The commission has noted that the officers’ efforts have contributed significantly to the safety and well-being of the community.

J.C. Is Operating On Balanced Budget

The Junior College’s budget for the current fiscal year is balanced, with revenues and expenses lined up to ensure financial stability. The college has managed to keep expenses in line with revenues, providing a stable financial foundation for the institution.

PCCF Under Scrutiny

The Polk County Criminal Justice Foundation has been under scrutiny recently. Some members of the community have expressed concerns about the foundation’s effectiveness and financial management. The foundation is currently reviewing its operations and seeking to address any issues that have been raised.

The Panola Watchman

The local newspaper, The Panola Watchman, has been covering local news and events for many years. The newspaper continues to provide valuable information to the community, covering local politics, crime, and community events.
Cowboys Are Proud Of Robert Newhouse

Bill Tatum Takes Sudden-Death Win

Sports Views

Football Returns To East Texas

By The Good Sport

High school football begins Friday night with just a few games in Texas taking this fall into the month-long charge. For instance, the Galveston High School Bulldogs won 5-0 on Thursday night for their first win of the season.

The game, which was held at the Galveston High School field, took place in front of a large crowd that included a number of Galveston fans who traveled to Galveston from across the state. The Bulldogs, who have won three straight games, are expected to continue their winning streak as they face a tough schedule in the coming weeks.

Coach John Smith, the head football coach at Galveston High School, said the win was a great start to the season for his team. "The Bulldogs are starting to gel as a team," Smith said. "We have a lot of talent on this team, and I think we're going to have a good season."
No information provided.