OUT OF THE PAST

From the Files of the Padua Watchman

By James Smith

> Despite the recent departure of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Smith from Padua, we would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge their service and dedication to the community. Their contributions have been invaluable, and we are grateful for their time and effort.

GRASSROOTS

> "Just a few thoughts..." by Victor J. "G.T." Thompson: "It's been said that the heart of Padua is the people. I couldn't agree more. They are the heart and soul of this community."

Unity At The Lord's Table

Background: The Lord's Table is a symbol of the Holy Communion, where Jesus Christ offers his body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. The meal signifies unity among believers, as they partake in the same bread and wine, symbolizing the sacrifice of Jesus.

Devotional

Billy St. Crooked

Billy St. Crooked is a beloved character in Carthage, known for his humorous and spiritual insights. This Sunday, he will share a devotional that reflects on the theme of unity and the importance of the Lord's Table in fostering a sense of community and connection among believers.
