Watchman To Publish Sunday Paper

First Edition Set This Week

With the years of waiting, waiting, waiting, the Watchman will make its first appearance in the Big Country Sunday morning, December 11, 1932. It will be the first Sunday paper for a distance of 50 miles, and the people of the area are looking forward to it with much delight.

In announcing the news, the editors of the Watchman state:

"The idea was conceived by the community in general, and was developed by the efforts of local merchants and citizens. The Watchman is not only for the people of the area, but for all those who wish to be in touch with the developments of the region. It will be a weekly paper, and will be circulated throughout the area, with a circulation of 10,000.

"The Watchman will be published on Sundays, and will be available at all the local merchants' stores. It will be a big color page, and will contain a wealth of local news, sports, and entertainment.

"We are proud to announce that the first edition will be printed in color, and will be a beautifully printed paper. We believe that this will be a big step forward in the progress of the area, and we are confident that it will be well received by the public.

"We are grateful to all those who have contributed to the success of this project, and we look forward to a long and successful future for the Watchman.

Out of the Past

From the files of the Panama Watchman

PANAMA COUNTY has a number of interesting people and events that have shaped its history. The following is a brief overview of some of these:

  The most difficult goal a man can set for himself is to be happy. This is a strange goal to set, but it is one worth working for. The key to happiness is to be content with what you have. If you are content with what you have, you will be happy. If you are not content with what you have, you will be unhappy.

PJC Takes Two Big Wins

By James, PJC Sports

The Pitkin Junior College track and field team had a banner year in 19XX, winning both the state and regional championships. The team's success was due in large part to the hard work and dedication of its athletes and coaches. The PJC track team's victory in the state meet was especially significant, as it marked the first time in school history that the team had earned a state championship. The regional championship was won in dominant style, as the team scored a total of 120 points, well ahead of second-place finisher, West Texas Junior College. The team's standout performers included John Smith, who set a new school record in the long jump, and Jane Doe, who captured the title in the 100-meter dash.

Army honors successful infantry training

The Army has recognized the success of the infantry training at Fort Bragg. The training program has seen a significant increase in new recruits joining the ranks, and many of the recent graduates are being deployed to combat zones. The program's success is due in part to the dedicated instructors and the rigorous training regimen. The Army is now expanding the program to include additional infantry units, and plans to accept even more recruits in the near future.
