John K. Cain
Mayor
City of Carthage
Who Is John K. Cain?

John K. Cain, born in Carthage, Texas on August 4, 1934, was the son of John and Mabel Cain. He attended Carthage schools and graduated from Carthage High School in 1952. After graduation, he worked in various jobs before entering the U.S. Navy in 1954. He served aboard the USS Alabama during the Korean War. After his military service, he returned to Carthage and worked for the Dairy Queen franchise. In 1976, he was elected to the Carthage City Council, and in 1978, he was appointed to the Carthage Police Department. He served as a police officer until 1990. In 1991, he was elected to the Carthage City Council again and served until 1998. He was elected Mayor of Carthage in 1998 and served until 2008. In 2008, he was re-elected to a second term as Mayor. He has been a lifelong member of the United Methodist Church and has served on various church committees. He is married to Doris Cain and they have three children. He enjoys fishing, hunting, and spending time with his family.
