Bulldogs Try For District Crown

The Carthage High School Bulldogs will try for a district crown in the next week. The team is 9-1 on the season and 4-1 in the district. The Bulldogs play at Smithville High School on Friday night. The winner will have the inside track for the district championship. The Bulldogs are riding high after beating Wills Point last week. Carthage has a tough schedule with games at Winnsboro and at Kemp next week. The Bulldogs will need to win both games to have a chance for the district championship.

Carthage Is Participating

In Area EVA Program

The Carthage High School Band is participating in the Area EVA Program. The program is designed to help schools improve their music programs. The Carthage Band has been working hard to improve their performance and is excited to be part of the program. The band will perform in front of judges who will evaluate their performance. The Carthage Band is looking forward to the opportunity to showcase their talent and compete with other bands in the area.

Spring Concert Scheduled

By Local School Bands

The Carthage High School Band and the Smithville High School Band will perform in a spring concert next week. The concert will be held at Carthage High School and will feature a variety of music, including classical, jazz, and rock. The Carthage Band is excited to perform for the community and is working hard to put together a great concert. The Smithville Band is also looking forward to the performance and is practicing hard to make sure they are ready for the concert.

IAC Plans Open House

Next Sunday

The Carthage City Council will meet in regular session next week. The council will discuss a variety of topics, including a proposed water district. The council is considering the formation of a water district to help finance the construction of a new water treatment plant. The council is hoping to have a decision on the water district by the end of the month. The council will also meet to discuss other topics, including a possible increase in property taxes.

The City of Smithville has announced plans for an open house next Sunday. The open house will be held at the Smithville City Hall and will feature a variety of activities, including a children's activities area and a food court. The open house is open to the public and is free to attend. The open house will be a great opportunity for residents to learn more about the city and its services.

In Other News

The Carthage High School Band is excited to announce a new album. The album is titled "Carthage" and features a variety of music, including classical, jazz, and rock. The band is thrilled to share their music with the community and is looking forward to the release of the album. The album will be available for purchase at the band's next concert.
