Edison: A Gift For Mankind

The Ultimate Atrocity

You'll never know how much good you can do until you do it.

You can help people. In fact, there’s a need for you. Your talents, your training, your creativity. They can make you a valuable asset in our community. Take a moment to think of all the things you can do for others. The environment. Sick people. Old people. People who need someone, someone who cares.

Then take another moment to think of what you can do. Perhaps by changing your attitude or personal approach to helping others. There are probably several organizations that can work in your own free time. Things you can do to provide help for others. It’s easier than you think. It’s not about being perfect. It’s about being there. It’s about being a part of something greater. It’s about making a difference. It’s about being a part of making a difference.
