Gas, Auto Bids Accepted

By Commission Monday Night

The Flintridge Board of Education decided Monday night to accept gas bids of $1.20 per barrel and auto bids of $2.50 per barrel. The bids were made by the school management to purchase the necessary supplies for the upcoming school year. The decision was made after a thorough comparison of the bids received from various suppliers. The administration is confident that this decision will result in the best value for the school's fiscal year.
