ATTENTION

LIVESTOCK FEEDERS

If you plan to feed livestock this winter and want to protect yourself against the annual winter price increases on livestock feed, you should consider a "forward purchasing contract" on your feed needs. This program was formally known as a "booking" until Sept. 1972. In short, you "contract" your feed needs, or Wayne feed needs for the coming winter & purchase feed as you always have in the past by picking up your feed as you need it. You do not have to pay for your feed contract in advance. This contract will start Nov. 1, 1972 and close Jan. 31, 1973. At the grain market price your contract price will be "fixed".

For further details make reservations to attend our Second Annual Customer Feed "Booking" Booklet No. 5 held at Joe's Cafe, Thursday, Oct. 13, 1972 at 7:00; Dinner, Entertainment, and Door Prizes are scheduled. Call 293-5268 or 293-7900 for reservations.
