PJC Is Selected To Administer Industrial Job Training Program

PJC Junior College has been selected to administer the Industrial Job Training Program for the city of Lubbock. The program will begin operations on October 1, according to John W. Clifton, director of the Texas Employment Commission.

The program is aimed at providing job training for displaced workers in the city. It will offer courses in various fields, including mechanics, electronics, and computer programming.

PJC President Donald W. Clifton said in a statement, "This is a major step forward in our efforts to provide vocational training to our students. We are committed to providing high-quality education that will prepare our students for success in the workforce."

COY Award Nominations Are Due

Nominations for the COY Award must be submitted by January 31. The award recognizes outstanding contributions to the community. Nominations should be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce. Full details can be found on the Chamber's website.

Police Dept. Revenue Increases Despite Loss Of Parking Meters

The removal of parking meters from downtown Lubbock has led to an increase in revenue from other sources. The revenue from parking meters has decreased, but other sources of revenue have increased.

Local Park Grant Verbally Approved

The city council has approved a grant for the construction of a new park in the downtown area. The grant will cover 75% of the cost of the project, which is estimated to be $2 million.

Citizens of the Month - Michelle Brown, left, accepts the Citizens of the Month award, presented by Chamber of Commerce President, Dr. John W. Clifton. Mrs. Brown's contributions to the community include her work with the Salvation Army and the United Way.

Drugs: Control Key To Cure

The latest scientific research on drugs seems to indicate that the current trend is toward more potent and less disastrous cures, but to my mind, the problems that face us are always great. This is not to say that the current trend is not a welcome change, but it must be recognized that we are still in the midst of a crisis. The crisis is not only in our own society, but in the world as a whole.

Between The Lines

Good Relationships Must Be Nurtured

The last time I was at the movies, I noticed an advertisement for a new movie, "Good Relationships Must Be Nurtured." I thought it was a strange title, but then I remembered that I had recently seen a movie with the same title, "Good Relationships Must Be Nurtured." The movie was about a man and a woman who were in a relationship, and they were trying to make it work.
