Condemnation Board Ponders Specific Duties

Members of the city's newly-appointed Condemnation Board held a joint meeting with the City Commissioners and came to the conclusion that a joint meeting with the City Commissioners would not be fruitful. The meeting was, therefore, canceled. Members of the City Commissioners, however, reported that the City Commissioners had been appointed and that the City Commissioners had been informed of the proposed joint meeting. Mayor John D. White, who had been appointed to the City Commissioners, said that the proposed joint meeting would not be fruitful. The meeting was, therefore, canceled. Members of the City Commissioners, however, reported that the City Commissioners had been appointed and that the City Commissioners had been informed of the proposed joint meeting.

Carthage Man Killed While Crossing Road

Rogers King, 42, of Carthage, was killed early Friday morning when he was struck by a car while crossing Highway 475 at about two miles south of Carthage. Mrs. King was transported to Carthage Regional Medical Center, where she was pronounced dead.

City Commissioner Chuck Stearnes said King was the second accident in the county in recent weeks. "We need to be more cautious," he said. "We need to be more careful when crossing the street." The intersection is a busy one, and Stearnes said there have been several accidents in the area recently.

City Manager Tom Reavis said the city will be working on the intersection to make it safer. "We need to make it safer," he said. "We need to do something about it." The city will be working to install a traffic light at the intersection.

A new feature, "Sports News," will be scheduled for the future. The column will provide information on sports and will be included in the paper on a regular basis. The column will provide information on sports and will be included in the paper on a regular basis.
