Templin To Run For Sheriff Job

John Templin, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Templin of Templin, announced Friday he would be a candidate for sheriff in Carrizo Springs.

Templin is a second-grade student in school, and he early announced his intentions to go after the office. His father said he was not sure how the boy would handle the job, but if he wins, he would be the youngest sheriff in Texas.

The Templin family has decided to keep the boy's name on the ballot, and if he wins, he will be registered to vote at age 8.

EPA Debate

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) held a meeting Monday in Carrizo Springs to discuss the effects of pollution on the city's water supply.

The meeting was attended by city officials, EPA representatives, and residents who are concerned about the quality of the water.

Builders, TUGCO Talk about Houses

The TUGCO, a local homebuilders' group, held a meeting Tuesday night to discuss the construction of new homes in the area.

The group discussed the need for more housing in the community and the importance of ensuring that new homes are built to meet the needs of the people.

WEE EMEF SCIENCE LIBRARY - Jerry Thompson, center, an engineer with the Carrizo Springs city council, presented the council with a proposal for the construction of a new science library.

Thompson said the library would be funded through a bond election and would be located on the city's outskirts. The library would include classrooms, a laboratory, and a computer lab.

The council approved the proposal and set a date for the bond election. The library is expected to be completed within two years.

Kindness Day?

The recently coined "World Kindness Day" is a November 13 event. The idea was to create a day to celebrate acts of kindness. However, kindness is not a new concept. It is a timeless value that has been celebrated in various ways throughout history. The day is a reminder of the importance of nurturing kindness and compassion in our daily lives.

Why Crime Increases

There are many reasons why crime rates increase. One factor is the availability of firearms, as more people own guns, the chance of violent crimes increases. Another factor is the economic situation, as people in poverty often turn to crime to survive. Additionally, the lack of community support and supervision can also contribute to crime.

Congress Is Roadblock

Congress has found itself in the middle of a political impasse. The government is on the verge of a shutdown, and the blame game is underway. The President and Congress are unable to reach an agreement on funding for the government. The situation is a classic example of gridlock and the inability of the two parties to work together.

Between The Lines

In the latest issue of the newspaper, we explore the complexities of tax reform. The debate over taxes is not new, but the current proposals are more controversial than ever. The goal is to simplify the tax code while increasing revenue. However, the proposed changes have sparked a heated debate among politicians and the public.
