News Briefs

Neusman Dies

Buchanan Harrison, a lifelong resident of Panola County and a native of the East Texas town of Texarkana, died Tuesday morning at age 86. Mr. Harrison was a member of the Woodland High School Class of 1954.

Local Teachers Attend Meeting

Mrs. Dorothy Bennett, Carthage Interscholastic Teachers Association (CITA) president, attended the recent board meeting of the Texas Association of Interscholastic Teachers held in Houston.

Trice Resigns

Eddie Trice, dean of students at Panola College in Carthage, has accepted a position as dean of students at Treasure Valley Community College in Pendleton, Oregon.

Bicentennial Ceremony Set

John A. Johnsen, deputy regional director of the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, who is presenting a national Bicentennial Flag and medal of recognition to Panola County, has announced that an official ceremony will take place this July at the Panola County Courthouse.

PAC Files Law Suit

To Collect Pay From County

Jerry Manuel, attorney for the Panola County Bicentennial Committee, announced that a lawsuit has been filed against the county to collect unpaid compensation.

Judge’s ruling to be delayed

County Judge Henry Bax Donaldson on Monday ruled that he would not file suit in the case of the Panola County Board of Directors, saying that the case could not be delayed.

Parade plans are announced

The Panola County Parade Committee, under the leadership of Mayor Frank Rawlings, has announced that the parade will be held on Saturday, July 27.

Beckville hires Allums

As Water, sewer superintendent

Frank Allums, a veteran of the U.S. Navy, has been hired as water and sewer superintendent for the city of Beckville.

Old Cemetery discovered here

Family finds missing link with its past

By Joyce Doster

The old graveyard is not forgotten by the people of Panola County. The old cemetery is located on the corner of Sycamore Street and the old railroad tracks, near the old Panola County Jail.

Frank Allums leaves for service in Korea

Frank Allums, a native of Panola County, has been drafted into the U.S. Army and will be leaving for service in Korea.

Ancient grave

By Dave Sanders

The old cemetery is located on the corner of Sycamore Street and the old railroad tracks, near the old Panola County Jail.

Judge’s ruling to be delayed

County Judge Henry Bax Donaldson on Monday ruled that he would not file suit in the case of the Panola County Board of Directors, saying that the case could not be delayed.

Parade plans are announced

The Panola County Parade Committee, under the leadership of Mayor Frank Rawlings, has announced that the parade will be held on Saturday, July 27.
EDITORIALS

FEATURES

Junk Art

Art has been a powerful medium for expressing ideas and emotions. In recent years, junk art has gained popularity as a form of expression. It involves taking found objects and transforming them into new works of art. This can be seen as a commentary on consumer culture and the value we place on material goods. Junk art challenges us to see the beauty in everyday objects and to think critically about our relationship with consumerism.

Relief Is Needed

Relief efforts have been ongoing in response to various natural disasters, economic challenges, and social injustices. The need for assistance is great, and many organizations are working tirelessly to provide support. Individuals and communities can play a role in relief efforts by donating supplies, offering financial support, or volunteering their time and skills. It's important to stay informed and be a part of the solution.

---

Dock Griffin Feed & Farm Supply

Dock Griffin Feed & Farm Supply offers a variety of products for farmers and ranchers. Whether you need animal feed, fertilizers, or other supplies, they have you covered. Visit their store to see their full selection and receive expert advice.

Blood Needed

Blood donation is crucial for saving lives. You can make a difference by donating blood at a local donation center.

Louise Looks

Louise is a fashion expert who provides stylish tips and trends for women. Stay tuned for her latest fashion advice.

---

Why It Pays to Shop at The Insurance Store

It's a department store for all your insurance needs. You can compare different policies, choose the best one for you, and shop from the comfort of your home. The best deals are just a click away.

---

Sometimes You Need A Little More Money Than What You Have...

It may be difficult to stretch your budget, but there are options available. Consider these tips to help you manage your finances better.

---

The First National Bank

Member F.B.I.C. "A Full Service Bank" Carthage, Texas