Subdivision Ordinance Altered
Developers Will Get 50 Per Cent Rebate

The Panola County Commissioners Court last week approved a new subdivision ordinance. The new ordinance contains substantial changes, directed by the Panola County Flood Control District and the Panola County Planning and Zoning Department, which the court had been working on during the past six months.

The new ordinance makes substantial changes to the floodplain regulations, setback requirements, and other aspects of the old ordinance. The court has been working on this issue for several years, and the new ordinance represents a significant improvement over the old one.

Tougher Penalties

The President said that the U.S. must be willing to use military force when necessary to protect its vital interests. The President also called for increased economic aid to friendly nations. He said that the U.S. must work with other nations to resolve international disputes.

The Bicentennial

As we prepare to celebrate our nation's bicentennial, we must remember the sacrifices of our forefathers. They fought for freedom and independence, and their legacy lives on today. The bicentennial is an excellent opportunity to teach our children about the history of our country. We must ensure that future generations know the story of the United States and the values that it represents.
