New Subdivision Okayed

Beckville City Council Thursday

By Mike Mohr

The council gave the go-ahead Thursday night for the approval of a special subdivision, adding another 100 or so lots to the city's national subdivision project.

The subdivision will be located on the west side of the city, between Hillard and Summerville streets, north of the old elementary school.

The subdivision will be called "Forest Circle," and will consist of 100 lots, each 50 feet wide and 140 feet deep, on a 20 to 25-foot lot line.

Some of the lots will be sold at a price of $100, with others ranging from $60 to $80.

The council voted unanimously to approve the subdivision, with Mayor Pro Tem Robert Hearn in favor.

The council also approved a new contract with the city's attorney, Attorney John P. O'Neil, to represent the city in legal matters.

Tower Adds Support

Bob Jones

The council approved the purchase of a new tower for the city's police department.

The tower will be located on the east side of the city, near the old police station.

The tower will cost $100,000, and will be used for radio communications.

The council also approved the purchase of a new police car for the department.

The car will cost $50,000, and will be used for patrol duties.

The council also approved the purchase of a new fire truck for the department.

The truck will cost $100,000, and will be used for fire suppression.

The council also approved the purchase of a new ambulance for the department.

The ambulance will cost $50,000, and will be used for medical emergencies.

The council also approved the purchase of a new police station for the department.

The station will cost $50,000, and will be used for administrative duties.

The council also approved the purchase of a new police department headquarters for the department.

The headquarters will cost $100,000, and will be used for administrative duties.

By City For July

Sales Tax Check Received

City comptroller Bob Jones received a check for $50,000 from the city's sales tax fund.

The check was received for the month of July, and will be used for general city expenses.

The city's sales tax fund is currently at $100,000, and is expected to reach $150,000 by the end of the year.

The city's sales tax rate is currently at 3%, and is expected to remain at that level for the foreseeable future.

The city's sales tax fund is used to finance the city's general operating expenses, such as salaries, utilities, and maintenance.

A Half-Century Of Banking

by Jack Decker

The First National Bank of Carthage has been in business for 50 years, and has been the financial center of the community ever since.

The bank was founded in 1963, and has been owned and operated by the same family ever since.

The bank has been a leader in the community, providing financial services to residents and businesses for over 50 years.

The bank has also been a major supporter of local community projects, and has made numerous donations to local organizations.

The bank is currently managed by the third generation of the Decker family, and has expanded its services to include trust and investment management.

Yearbook Ready

The 1963 yearbook for the Carthage High School is printed and ready to be distributed to students and parents.

The yearbook will be distributed during the first week of school, and will be available for purchase until the end of the year.

The yearbook will include photos of the senior class, as well as articles about the school's activities and events.

The yearbook will also include a special section for the school's sports teams, and a section for the school's publications..

The 1963 yearbook is the first yearbook printed by the school, and is expected to be a valuable resource for students and alumni in the future.
HSPC Names Mrs. Smith To Head Fund-Raising Drive

Louise Looks

We’ve Been Stuck With Some Odds & Ends Some Slightly Dented, Floor Samples, And Just Bought Too Much Merchandise In Some Cases. We Must Move This Merchandise At Low-Low Prices. Save A Bundle During Our White Elephant Sale Not Just Another Sale: Just See Your Favorite Sales Person At Western Auto.
EDITORIALS ★ FEATURES

Between The Lines

Diego Garcia Vote Encouraging

The former British territory of Diego Garcia has voted in favor of being annexed by the United States. The vote was seen as a significant step towards the end of Britain's colonial era in the Indian Ocean.

The defeated speech text follows.

"I'm disappointed," the defeated official said. "I thought we had a strong case for staying."