County Votes ‘No!’

Pampa County voters turned a decisive ‘thump’ down on all eight constitutional amendments and the proposed amendment author Tuesday in a election that drew a surprising voter turnout.

The constitutional amendments all fell by the United Fund officials expressed disappointment Tuesday when it was announced that only 18.01 percent of the Pampa County War Bond drive goal was reached.

Accordingly, the plan for a major portion of the drive has been amended to allow more time for workers to contact their friends for donations.

“All of these extra efforts will be our best chance to raise the full amount that the 4-H drive is asking for,” said county executive Bob Henson.

The drive, which ends this Saturday, is supported by the Pampa County 4-H Club and Pampa County Baptist Church.

Invitations Are Sent To Christmas Parade

More than 20 invitations to participate in this year’s Christmas Parade have been mailed to local organizations and to some out-of-town groups.

The deadline for the parade is Monday, Dec. 10, with a meeting to be held Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m. in the Pammer Car Travel Room.

Mrs. Everett Hardin asked that all invitations be returned by the deadline, as well as for all other Christmas Parade information.

The invitations were sent to local churches and organizations as well as to groups in out-of-town areas.

The deadline for the parade is Monday, Dec. 10, with a meeting to be held Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m. in the Pammer Car Travel Room.

Wagon Train Visits Carthage

A group of Pampa County and Wagon Train officials gathered Saturday to kick off the wagon train’s 100th anniversary celebration at the Pampa County Courthouse.

The group included members of the Pampa County Historical Society, the Pampa County Museum, and the Pampa County Chamber of Commerce.

The group also included members of the Pampa County Historical Society, the Pampa County Museum, and the Pampa County Chamber of Commerce.

The group also included members of the Pampa County Historical Society, the Pampa County Museum, and the Pampa County Chamber of Commerce.

For Women, the trip is the second one under the umbrella of the 100th anniversary celebration. The first trip took place in October, and the next one is scheduled for January.

The wagon train is sponsored by the National Wagon Train Association, which was founded in 1967.

The group is made up of women who have been involved in the historical preservation and the promotion of the wagon train movement.

The group is made up of women who have been involved in the historical preservation and the promotion of the wagon train movement.

Under the original wagon train routes that were once traveled by pioneers, the wagon train travels through a variety of landscapes and terrains.

The train stops at various locations, including small towns, and allows visitors to experience the history and culture of the area.

Each stop is unique, offering a glimpse into the past and the stories of the pioneers who traveled these routes.

The train riders will receive a special certificate and a photograph of the train at each stop.

Spook House Good ‘N Scary

For the past couple of years, the Miami News has been holding a Spook House contest in the Palm Beach area. This year’s contest has been won by the 67th Street and Santa Barbara Avenue Spook House, which is being held by the Riverbend Girl Scout Council.

The house is decorated with a series of huge, artificial spider webs and a variety of other eerie decorations. It is open from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights, and admission is 50 cents. The proceeds will go to the Girl Scouts.

For those who are not fans of Spook Houses, there are a number of other Halloween events taking place in the area. These include a costume contest at the National Hotel on Merritt Island, and a parade through downtown West Palm Beach.

The Palm Beach Post is a daily newspaper serving Palm Beach County, Florida.
