Too Much

The full-page U.S. pull is an eye-opener for the decorators and designers who are the backbone of the industry. The editors of fashion magazines have expressed their concern over the recent trend of exaggerated proportions, stating that the current designs are not only impractical but also uncomfortable. They believe that the current fashion industry is focused too much on the pursuit of novelty and profit at the expense of functionality and style.

According to the editors, the exaggerated proportions of the garments not only restrict the movement of the wearer but also create a sense of discomfort and dissatisfaction. They urge the designers to focus on creating practical and comfortable designs that are both aesthetically pleasing and functional.

Soviet Prisoners

While the State Department is working on the "de-escalation" of the situation, it has become clear that the actions of the United States are not the only factor influencing the situation. The Soviet Union has also taken steps to address the issue, but the outcome remains uncertain. The United States and the Soviet Union have been working towards a peaceful resolution, but the lack of progress has raised concerns about the future of the situation.

Strong Voice

In the past, Mary Potter was much admired by her many friends and fellow citizens. Today, however, she has taken on a new role as a political activist, fighting for the rights of the underprivileged and the poor. Her efforts have been met with resistance from those who believe that the current system is fair and just.

SENSING THE NEWS

The View From Europe

Paris, France—America's most prestigious fashion designer, Yves Saint Laurent, has been praised for his recent collection, which features a mix of bold colors and intricate designs. The collection has been described as a bold departure from the designer's previous work, which was more subdued and understated.

Your company has no retirement plan, and you know Social Security won’t be enough.

Shelby-Panola Federal Savings & Loan’s new tax-sheltered retirement plan may be the answer.

Open an Individual Retirement Account today, and during your retirement years, you’ll be able to do it, go to the plan. This plan is available to any taxpayer who hasn’t setup an active participant in any covered retirement plan during the taxable year. You can contribute up to $2,000 annually, or 15% of your earned income, whichever is less. Contributions are tax-deductible, and you won’t have to record your withdrawals. Neither the principal nor its earnings will be taxed until you begin receiving your retirement payments, when you’ll most likely be living below the bracket.

Prepayments must begin after the age of 50. If you’re receiving money as a result of your marriage, quarter ownership, or similar ownership, you’ll find it’s often a better plan to use the payments. For full details about "IRA’s" send us the coupon. Also, a brochure at Shelby-Panola Federal Savings & Loan will give you more information. We can also direct you to an independent retirement plan or office.

If you’re younger, you’ll be able to count on one thing: Your future will be more secure. You can count on it, just as much as the sun coming up every day.
