Curriculum To Include Crime, Drug Education

Panola County School District is set to unveil a new curriculum program for the upcoming school year. The program, sponsored by the federal Department of Justice, includes two instructional units designed to teach students about crime and drug abuse.

The first unit, titled "Understanding Crime," will focus on the causes and consequences of crime. It will cover topics such as the criminal justice system, the impact of crime on society, and strategies for preventing crime. This unit will be taught to students in grades 6-12.

The second unit, titled "Drug Abuse and Its Consequences," will provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the effects of drug abuse on individuals, families, and society. It will cover the history of drugs, the effects of drug use, and strategies for preventing drug abuse. This unit will be taught to students in grades 7-12.

The goal of the program is to equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed decisions about crime and drug use. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking skills and to apply what they learn in real-world situations.

Living Nativity Scene Slated For Saturday

The Bentonia Youth Fellowship of the First Friends School Church will present their annual Living Nativity Scene at their church on December 14th. The program will feature live animals, including donkeys, sheep, and angels, arranged to depict the story of Jesus' birth.

Families are invited to attend and experience the magic of Christmas in a way that brings the story to life. The program will begin at 7:00 PM, and all are welcome to participate in the fun and festivities.

PANOLA COUNTY
This Week

Santa Claus will make a special appearance at the Christmas parade on December 14th, sponsored by the Panola County Chamber of Commerce. The parade will feature floats, music, and of course, Santa Claus himself!

The parade will begin at 6:00 PM, and it will wind its way through the downtown area, ending at the downtown square. The event is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

Christmas Business Brisk In Carthage

With the holiday season in full swing, businesses in Carthage are experiencing a surge in sales. Shoppers are flocking to local stores to purchase gifts for family and friends.

Wal-Mart, the largest retailer in the area, has reported a significant increase in sales during the past month. Store managers attribute the increase to the popularity of their holiday sales events and the variety of products available.

Local artisans and craftsmen are also enjoying the holiday season. Many have set up booths in the downtown area to sell their handcrafted items, such as pottery, jewelry, and woodwork.

Christmas in the Town of Three Sisters

Three Sisters residents are gearing up for the annual Christmas celebration. The town has decorated the main street with lights and wreaths, and residents have put up festive displays in their homes.

The town will host a special Christmas tree lighting ceremony on December 15th. The event will feature live music, a visit from Santa Claus, and a tree lighting ceremony.

This year's event is expected to be even more beautiful than last year. Visitors are encouraged to come out and join in the festivities.

In conclusion, the holiday season is a time of joy and celebration. Whether you are shopping for gifts, attending a parade, or simply enjoying the festive atmosphere, there is something for everyone in Panola County and beyond.

Merry Christmas?

As the focus of traffic decelerates in Tulsa this week, the Air Force will have a Christmas tree and a Nativity scene present on the same lot where a red light to stop. The tree will be located in front of the Nativity scene which will be displayed in the lobby of the Wdcc building. The tree will be 15 feet tall and will be decorated with lights and decorations. The Nativity scene will be 10 feet tall and will be displayed in the lobby of the Wdcc building. The display will include the baby Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, and will be set up in a manger. The display will be open to the public from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. It is free to the public.

Food Stamps

The Chili Pepper Food Co-op in Tulsa is now accepting new members. The co-op is located at 1020 South Owasso Street. Membership is open to all residents of Tulsa and surrounding areas. The co-op is looking for new members to help support their community and provide fresh, healthy food to those in need. Membership is free and includes a subscription to the co-op newsletter. For more information, please contact the chili pepper food co-op at (918) 621-3333.

Mirrors Society

In the face of mounting criticism of American schools, the U.S. Department of Education is considering a new grading system. "To understand the problem, you have to understand the system," said John M. Thompson, director of the department. "We currently use a system that is intended to be fair but is often complicated and difficult to understand. The new system will simplify the grading process and make it easier for students and parents to understand." The new grading system is expected to be introduced in the fall of 1974. For more information, please contact the U.S. Department of Education at (202) 708-1212.

Out Of The Past

מדויק והруг

The New York Times article was well-written. The author did a great job of describing the events that led up to the execution of the man in question. The story was well-paced and easy to follow. I would like to see more articles like this one in the future. It was a great read.

Police Power

Police are working people and it's not every working person who can afford to pay the salaries of the police force. We should support our police officers by providing them with the equipment they need to do their job. The police officers are working very hard to keep our community safe, and we should be grateful for their service.

The Watchman

The Watchman is a great read. The articles are well-written and informative. I would recommend it to anyone who is interested in keeping up with the local news.

Your company has no retirement plan, and you know Social Security won't be enough.

Shelby-Panola Federal Savings & Loan's new tax-sheltered retirement plan may be the answer.

Open an Individual Retirement Account today, and during your retirement years, you'll be able to do things you planned.

This plan is available to any taxpayer who has not been an active participant in any qualified retirement plan during the taxable year. The contributions are up to $2,000, and not more than 15% of your earned income. The contribution limit is less. This contribution is fully tax deductible, and you won't have to itemize your deductions.

Neither the principal nor the earnings will be taxed until you begin to receive retirement payments, when you're most likely to be in a lower tax bracket.

Payments may begin after the age of 59½. You may withdraw your money at age 62, or in monthly, quarterly, or annual payments.

You'll find that opening an Individual Retirement Account is as simple as opening a savings account. For full details, call us at 965-5180, or send us a letter to Shelby-Panola Federal Savings & Loan, 321 S. Main St., Italian, TX 75851. We'll send you a representative to your home or office.

So call us today. And tomorrow, you'll be able to enjoy your retirement. Your future will be more secure.

You can count on it, just as much as you count on the sun coming up tomorrow.

Suit Is Filed To Stop Texas Cattle Embargo

A suit to stop the cattle embargo from Texas to Arkansas was filed in Texas County, Arkansas, on Monday. The suit was filed by a group of farmers and ranchers who claim the embargo is violating their civil rights.

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court in Little Rock, Arkansas. The plaintiffs are seeking a temporary injunction to prevent the Texas government from enforcing the embargo.

The embargo was put in place by the Texas state government to prevent cattle from being brought into Arkansas. The farmers and ranchers claim the embargo is preventing them from selling their cattle and making a living.

The suit alleges that the embargo is unconstitutional and that the Texas government is violating the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

The plaintiffs are represented by local attorneys and are seeking a damages award of $1 million.

TMA Report Reveals

Texas Has Top Business Climate

The Texas Manufacturers Association (TMA) has ranked the state's business climate as the best in the nation, according to a recent report. The report, which was based on a survey of 2,000 Texas manufacturers, found that Texas has the most favorable business climate due to its low taxes, skilled workforce, and strong infrastructure.

The report also found that Texas manufacturers are more likely to expand their businesses in the next year than manufacturers in other states. This is due, in part, to the state's pro-business policies and its commitment to supporting manufacturing.

"Texas has a strong manufacturing sector and is well-positioned to continue its growth," said TMA President John W. Davis. "Our survey shows that manufacturers in Texas are confident in the state's economic future and are planning to invest in their businesses."
