'Liberty Tree' Planted At Courthouse

A small group of local citizens attended a dedication ceremony at the Panola County Courthouse May 29 to commemorate the planting of a Liberty Tree on the courthouse lawn. The ceremony was conducted by James B. Johnson, Judge, And Presiding Justice of the 205th Judicial District Court. The tree was planted outside the courthouse on the street side of the building and adjacent to the front steps as a symbol of freedom and democracy.

The event was organized by the Panola County Bar Association, with the cooperation of the courthouse administration. The tree was a gift from the Panola County Bar Association and the citizens of Panola County to honor the memory of past and present judges and lawyers who have served the county.

Squeaking Wheel

Theresa J. Bergan, President of the National League of Women Voters, resigned from her national post last week for a very good reason. She told the league that it was time to let someone else have a chance to lead.

It is very easy to become a victim of the "squeaking wheel." You can get so busy trying to make the squeaking wheel吱吱作响 that you lose sight of all the other good parts of the organization.

Mrs. Bergan resigned as president of the National League of Women Voters. This has been an organization that grows as it works. The National League of Women Voters started in 1919 with 30 members. As its membership grew, its work has expanded.

She points out that the League of Women Voters is expanding in the areas of education, social welfare, national and international affairs. In the last year, it has sponsored 43,000 educational programs in 3,000 communities, where 5,000,000 women have participated.
