Six Quit Over Zoning Decision

Paul Freeman at the Planning and Zoning Commission has individual four of the five members said they will not resign and a fifth is "contemplating resignation" according to a statement released March 7.

The action involved the removal of a PEC member who was responsible for a plan of land at North Panola Drive in the City of Carthage.

Both the PEC and the Planning and Zoning Commission are responsible for zoning in the City of Carthage. The PEC member who was responsible for the plan is also a member of the Planning and Zoning Commission.

The action resulted in a vote of 4-1 to remove the PEC member from their position. The action was announced in a press release on March 7.

Chamber Banquet Nears

Reagan Brown Is Speaker

Reagan Brown, a special assistant to the Governor of Texas, will be the featured speaker at the Chamber of Commerce’s annual banquet on March 18th.

Brown is expected to discuss various topics related to economic development and growth in Texas. The banquet is a major event for the Chamber of Commerce, providing an opportunity for members to network and connect with other local business leaders.

The Soviet Fleet

The much-heralded Soviet aircraft carrier "Brezhnev" has been in the news lately. The carrier is a formidable force, capable of projecting military power across vast distances. However, it is important to remember that the fleet is not just about the carrier itself, but the entire naval force that supports it. This includes submarines, fighter aircraft, and support vessels. The Soviet Union's naval capabilities are a testament to its technological prowess and strategic ambitions.

Let's Be Fair To Mr. Ford

President Ford has been under scrutiny lately, with questions regarding his handling of economic policies and international relations. The president's approach to these issues has divided public opinion. It is crucial to have a fair and balanced perspective when evaluating a leader's performance. Instead of focusing on personal attacks, it is more productive to discuss the policies and actions that have direct implications for the well-being of the country.
