Local Teacher Honored

By State IA Association

George Smith, Carthage High School head football coach, was selected as the outstanding industrial arts teacher from the East Texas Industrial Arts Region by the Texas Industrial Arts Association. An announcement of the statewide recognition was made Saturday at the 46th annual conference of the State Industrial Arts Association at the Long Center in Austin.

Mr. Smith has served the industry of industrial arts in both public and private industrial arts programs, in addition to serving on the Texas Industrial Arts Association Board of Directors. He has served in the capacity of chairman of the East Texas Industrial Arts Association for the past nine years.

This Week

The city of Carthage will be held Saturday, October 24th, and will be the host for a state-wide industrial arts contest. The contest will be held at the Carthage High School and will feature more than 200 students from across the state.

The contest will feature various events including food science, travel and tourism, and industrial arts. The contest will also feature a state-wide industrial arts competition, a state-wide industrial arts competition, and a state-wide industrial arts competition.

The contest will conclude with a banquet and awards ceremony at the Carthage High School on Saturday night.

Carthage High School

Local Swim Coach Has Unique Philosophy

Local swimming coach John Duggan, who was featured in an earlier report about his success, has a unique philosophy when it comes to winning. Duggan believes that victory is not just about winning, but about improving every day. He has implemented a new training regimen that focuses on mental preparation and technique, which has helped his swimmers achieve better results.

Good Eating Habits Should Start Early

Children who develop healthy eating habits early in life are more likely to maintain them as they grow older. Parents can help by setting a good example and involving children in meal planning and preparation. This not only makes the process more enjoyable, but also helps children make informed choices about the food they eat.
