Local Testimony Slated
In House Committee Hearings

The current session of the legislature is scheduled to last for two weeks by former Attorney General Leon Jaworski, and the State House Democrats are preparing to open their floor sessions at 4 p.m. today.

In an interview last week with a group of Democratic lawmakers, Jaworski said that he would be willing to testify before the committee if invited to do so. He added that he would be willing to testify before any other legislative committee if asked to do so.

The committee is scheduled to hear testimony from Jaworski and other Democratic lawmakers on the issue of the state's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983.

In addition to Jaworski, the committee is scheduled to hear testimony from a number of other Democratic lawmakers on the issue of the state's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983.
