Unusual Thanks

To the Editor of the Carthage News:

As we approach the holiday season, I would like to express my gratitude to the people who have contributed to the success of our community. Without their support, we would not be where we are today.

Firstly, I would like to thank the local businesses for their continued patronage. Your support has allowed us to thrive and grow over the years.

Secondly, I would like to acknowledge the efforts of our local government officials. Their leadership has been instrumental in shaping our community for the better.

Lastly, I would like to express my appreciation to the residents of Carthage. Your commitment to our community has been unwavering and inspiring.

Thank you all for your contributions. Together, we can make Carthage an even better place.

Sincerely,

SENSING THE NEWS

No ‘Betrayal’

The recent controversy surrounding the appointment of a new city official has sparked much discussion. However, I believe it is important to refrain from making assumptions without evidence.

The rumor that ‘Betrayal’ is the new city official is false. It seems to have originated from a misunderstanding or a miscommunication. It is crucial to verify information before spreading it.

We should remain vigilant and seek accurate information. Let us avoid jumping to conclusions and refrain from spreading baseless allegations.

News is a crucial tool for public involvement. It empowers us to make informed decisions and hold our leaders accountable. Let us make the most of this opportunity.

Poultry Outlook Is Dim

For May 13

TO THE VOTERS OF PANOLA COUNTY

In this year of change and uncertainty, we must come together to ensure a brighter future. Our county has faced numerous challenges, but we are a resilient community.

We have seen our share of hardships, but we have also experienced moments of triumph. This year, we must continue to work towards our goals and dreams.

Let us vote for leaders who prioritize our needs and strive for progress. Together, we can make a difference.

In Carthage FFA Rodeo

Mike Moore Top Cowboy

It was the same again this year.

The arena was busy again.

The riders were focused.

The horses were ready.

Mike Moore was the top cowboy.

Taking top honors in the competition, Moore, a student at Carthage High School, displayed his skills in the arena, impressing the judges with his precision and control.

Moore rode with grace and determination, showcasing his ability to handle the challenging animals.

His performance was highlighted by a dynamic display of horsemanship, captivating the audience with his skill and determination.

Moore's victory was well-deserved, as his efforts and dedication to the sport were evident in every movement, leaving no doubt as to why he was chosen as the top cowboy for this year's event.

Local IA Club Is Tops

Carthage High School finishes first in the competition, and this year marks their 16th consecutive first place win. Jim and Beth Faires, who have been the IA Club's sponsors for the past three years, accept the championship trophy from Carthage High School principal, Mr. John Holland. The team's success is attributed to their hard work and dedication.

Open House Is Sunday

Gardens, Inc., and the newly organized sister organization, the Garden Club of America, are having a combined open house at the home of Mrs. Marion Brown in Carthage on Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. The home was decorated especially for the occasion, and visitors will enjoy an interesting garden tour, refreshments, and an informal chat with the hostess and club members.

Woods Family Holds Reunion

The Woods family held a reunion recently in Carthage. Descendants of the late Albert Woods gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woods. The family includes several generations and spans several generations, with members from as far away as California and New York. The reunion was a fun event, with stories shared and memories rekindled.

Chairman's Notes: "People talk a lot about the need for new ideas, but there's no need to reinvent the wheel. Enough new ideas have already been used to make the world a better place; it's just a matter of applying them in the right way. Let's not forget the old tried-and-true methods, either. They've served us well for centuries."

State Marker Planned For Old Center Cemetery

Announcement Made During Activities Saturday

By Jim Stevens

The State Historical Commission's planned dedication of a memorial marker for the Old Center Cemetery on Saturday was announced at a ceremony held at the cemetery. The marker will commemorate the cemetery's history and the people who were buried there.

According to the commission, the cemetery has been an important part of the community's history for many years. The marker will help to ensure that the cemetery's history is not forgotten.

In attendance were many people, including family members of those buried in the cemetery, local historians, and members of the community. The ceremony included speeches and a dedication of the marker.

The announcement was made during the activities held at the cemetery on Saturday. People of all ages were present, and the atmosphere was one of celebration.

The marker is expected to be a popular attraction for tourists and locals alike. It will be located at the center of the cemetery, making it easily accessible to visitors.
