Grant, Loan Approved
For Rock Hill WSC Expansion

By Jim Stevens

A Special Meeting of the Rock Hill and Green Mountain Water Service Districts was held Tuesday night. The meeting was conducted by District Engineer, Mr. W. S. Gropp, who held office of the district for 20 years. The meeting was opened at 7:30 P.M. and conducted according to the rules of the district.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Gropp, who presented a report on the progress of the Rock Hill WSC Expansion Project. The report included information on the current status of the project, including the construction of the new water treatment plant and the upgrading of the existing facilities.

The District Engineer then presented a proposal for the expansion of the Rock Hill WSC, which included the construction of a new water treatment plant and the installation of new water pipes and valves. The expansion would provide additional capacity to meet the growing demand for water in the Rock Hill area.

The proposal was discussed by the Board members, and it was agreed to approve the project. The Board then voted to authorize the District Engineer to proceed with the construction of the new water treatment plant and the installation of new water pipes and valves.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 P.M., with the next regular meeting scheduled for Tuesday, May 10, at 7:30 P.M.

Two Houston Girls Disappear From Carthage Bowling Lanes

Carthage police are searching for two Houston girls who disappeared from the Carthage Bowling Lanes on Monday night. The girls, 16-year-old Natasha Smith and 14-year-old Ashley Jones, were last seen at the bowling alley after attending a birthday party at a nearby restaurant.

The police are worried that the girls may have been taken against their will. The girls' families are also concerned, and they have reported the disappearance to the police.

The police are asking anyone with information about the girls' whereabouts to contact them immediately. They are also urging anyone who may have seen the girls in the days leading up to their disappearance to come forward.

The police are working with the Houston Police Department and the Harris County Sheriff's Office to investigate the case.

Master Plan Decision Expected

A Master Plan decision is expected to be made by the City Council of Carthage on Monday night. The council will consider a proposal to develop a new master plan for the city.

The proposal includes recommendations for the construction of new roads, the expansion of existing roads, and the development of new parks and recreational facilities. The proposal also includes recommendations for the improvement of public transportation and the development of new housing developments.

The council will consider the proposal and make a decision on Monday night. The decision is expected to be announced at a public meeting to be held at 7:30 P.M. in the City Hall.

Summer Work

Summer work is under way at the East Texas Methodist Orphanage, where a group of boys is working on various projects. The boys are participating in a summer work program, and they are working on a variety of projects, including the construction of a new playground, the maintenance of the existing playground, and the planting of a new garden.

The boys are supervised by a group of adults, who are responsible for their safety and well-being. The boys are also provided with meals and housing during their stay at the orphanage.

The summer work program is expected to last for six months, and it is expected to provide the boys with valuable experience and training.

Murfvaks's Lakeside Retreat

Now Under New Management
