First Woman In Panola County

Mrs. Churchill Is A Regular

When Mrs. Don Churchill decided to begin teaching in the Panola County schools some six years ago, she was one of the few women.

Today, after being the first woman to hold a position of importance in the Panola County high school system, Mrs. Churchill will retire.

"When we came here," the teacher said, "the school was quite small, but I was excited to be teaching. Now, I'm retiring, but I'm not saying goodbye. I'll always be here for the students and the school.

"And today, while the students will remember me, I want them to remember that they can always count on me. I'll always be here for them."

Classes Dismissed

A Hit!

What a hit! Our principal, Mrs. Churchill, has decided to retire after a long and successful career in education.

Mrs. Churchill is a hit in our school. She has been a great teacher and mentor to us all. We'll miss her, but we're happy for her retirement.

Voting Rights

This Voting Rights Act is still with us, and in the State of Mississippi, where the civil rights struggle began, the state of Mississippi is still working for disfranchisement and disenfranchisement of Negroes. The state has passed a law that requires Negroes to have a white person vouch for them in order to register to vote. This law is designed to prevent Negroes from voting and to keep them from exercising their rights as citizens. It is a step backward in the civil rights movement. The Voting Rights Act of 1965 was passed to protect the civil rights of all citizens, including Negroes. It is a cornerstone of American democracy and must be protected.

Why Secrecy?

Secrecy is a necessary part of the American political process. It is necessary to protect the privacy of voters and to ensure the integrity of the election process. The secrecy of the ballot is essential to the functioning of a democratic society. If voters were forced to reveal their choices, they might be influenced by others or might feel pressured to vote in a certain way. This could undermine the democratic process and lead to unfair outcomes.

Sensing the News

Reshaping America

 presidente has called for a national emergency and has requested additional funds to address the ongoing crisis. This is a significant step in the right direction, but more must be done to address the root causes of this problem. The government must take bold action to ensure the safety and well-being of all Americans. The world is watching, and we must act quickly.

Out of the Past

From the Past

The events of the past have shaped the course of history. The actions of our ancestors continue to influence the decisions we make today. By understanding our history, we can better understand the present and make informed decisions for the future. The experiences of the past can provide valuable lessons for the present and help us avoid repeating past mistakes.
