Two County Meetings
Are Scheduled Monday

Two meetings will be held in two different counties on Monday.

In Cass County, Cass County Treating Co is scheduled to host a meeting. The meeting will focus on several important topics, including updates on the latest trends in agricultural practices. Attendees will have the opportunity to network with other farmers and learn from experts in the field. The meeting will be held in the evening, providing participants with a chance to attend other meetings throughout the day.

In Fayette County, the Fayette County Farmers Cooperative will hold a meeting. This meeting will cover topics such as crop management, livestock care, and the latest research in agricultural science. The Fayette County Farmers Cooperative emphasizes the importance of collaboration among farmers to ensure the sustainability of the local agriculture industry.

Both meetings are open to the public, and registration is encouraged to ensure a smooth and efficient process.

County Shows Its Heart
Contributes Heavily For Tommy Maxey

Panola County showed its big heart this weekend by donating $100 to the Triangle Cemetery in Galveston, where the remains of the late Tommy Maxey, a local football player, are laid to rest.

Two hundred members of the Galveston Cemetery Association contributed $50 each to the fund in the spirit of giving, according to the association's president, Mrs. Alice Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson said the donation was made in recognition of Mr. Maxey's contributions to local sports, especially football.

"Mr. Maxey was a great influence on many young people," she said. "He was our community's pride and joy, and we wanted to show our respect."
