Carthage ISD looking ahead

The Carthage Independent School District Board of Education was expected to vote Tuesday on a new high school. The new high school is part of the district's overall growth plan to address future student needs. The school will be located on the north side of the city, near the new Carthage Middle School. The new high school is expected to open in the fall of 2024.

Supreme Court secrets revealed

The Supreme Court has made several controversial decisions in recent years, including those regarding abortion, immigration, and voting rights. The court's decisions are often closely watched by politicians, activists, and the general public. The court's Justices are appointed for life and are not subject to election, which has led to concerns about accountability and transparency. In recent years, there have been calls for more transparency and accountability within the court system.

SENSE THE NEWS

What rights do Iranians have?

By Anthony C. McCarthy

Two Supreme Court Justices, Justices Samuel A. Alito, Jr. and Neil M. Gorsuch, have recently expressed concerns about the rights of Iranian citizens. The justices noted that Iranians have a right to fair and impartial trials, and a right to competent legal representation. The justices also expressed concern about the possibility of torture and other cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment.
