90th Birthday celebrated
Myrtle Yarbrough recalls early days

Myrtle Yarbrough celebrates her 90th birthday on March 15th at her home in Carthage, Texas. She reflects on her childhood and early life as a homemaker.

In this article, Myrtle shares some memories from her youth, including her first memories of the Civil War and her childhood in a small Texas town. She also talks about the challenges of raising a family during the Great Depression.

To some old breakfast
Potatoes add new twist

According to Myrtle, potatoes have been a staple in southern cooking for generations. She shares a recipe for her famous “Mama’s Special Potato Salad” that is sure to please any taste.

The article also includes a section on the history of potatoes in the United States, including how they were first introduced to the country and their importance in the southern diet.
