Your Social Security

1. It may not be generally known that the Social Security Administration is the largest governmental agency in the world. It is responsible for processing billions of dollars in benefits each year. There are more employees at the Social Security Administration than at any other agency, both foreign and domestic.

NOW THAT YOU HAVE SEEN THE PRESIDENTIAL DEBATES

You have had the opportunity to witness Gov. Reagan as indeed Presidential material. He is serious, thoughtful and given to logical approaches instead of smart remarks. You have been afforded the opportunity to see Gov. Reagan as the man he really is, and not the man that cheap shots from the political arena and some of the liberal media depict him. You have seen a man with a plan and the ability to accomplish it.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR YOU TO DECIDE THE ISSUES AT STAKE!

1. Do you want prayer back in school?
2. Do you want free enterprise to create meaningful jobs?
3. Do you favor access to the board tax CPI?
4. Do you favor a constitutional amendment requiring a balanced federal budget?
5. Do you favor the right to keep and bear arms?
6. Do you favor deregulation and a production-oriented energy policy based on a return to the free market?
7. Do you favor a safe America through military preparedness?
8. Do you favor local control of our children’s education?
9. Do you favor an overall reduction in the levels of government bureaucracy, regulation and paper work?
10. Do you favor maximum production for farmers and ranchers without government interference?

If these are the things you want for yourself and your country, you should have no hesitation about voting for RONALD REAGAN: your next President.
