Called a 'mixed blessing'
New banking laws approach

By Judith Music

The new banking laws were recently signed into law by President Carter, marking a major change in the American banking industry. The laws aim to increase competition and provide a broader range of services to consumers. While some experts believe this will be a mixed blessing, others see it as a positive step forward.

Lions sell 1,800 burgers

Ponca City football funs were thrilled when the Lions sold out all of their burgers at the recent fundraiser. The event was a huge success, with proceeds going towards the team's upcoming games.

Commissioners canvass votes, hear Bar reps

The commissioners recently held canvass votes, hearing from local Bar representatives. The discussions centered around the future of the town and ways to improve it. The representatives brought up several ideas, including better street lighting and increased public spaces.

One dead, five injured

Accidents continue to claim lives. This incident, unfortunately, occurred last week, leaving residents shocked and saddened.

This Week

Rates hiked by SW Bell

The local Bell company announced an increase in rates, effective immediately. This decision was made to cover the costs of maintaining the network and providing new services.

AUTUMN LEAVES

The leaves are falling, reminding us that autumn is in full swing. The cooler weather brings a new atmosphere and new activities to enjoy.

Jet-age assassins are intolerable

It is not a secret that the American public is growing increasingly concerned about the rise of jet-age assassins. These individuals are often able to execute their crimes with relative ease due to their access to advanced technology and resources.

The Abscam Sting

The Abscam Sting was a covert operation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the late 1970s and early 1980s. The operation targeted high-ranking officials in various government agencies, including the Senate, House of Representatives, and Cabinet-level positions. The operation involved the use of a fake $500,000 bribe to entrap the officials.

VETERANS' DAY
Tuesday, November 11, 1980

In times of peace... in times of war... man and women of the armed forces have stood ready to protect our ideals of democracy. We will not forget their heroic deeds, for they were done in the name of freedom. We cannot forget their loyalty, for it gave their struggle meaning, and kept this nation strong. We must not forget them! On Veterans Day, let's pay grateful tribute to those who lived, and died so courageously for their country.
