Central Baptist to celebrate 30th anniversary on Sunday

The first anniversary of Central Baptist Church will be celebrated with a special service this Sunday during the 11 a.m. worship service. U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Rev. J.T. Weems, president of East Texas State University, are scheduled to speak. The morning service will feature special music by the church choir. A parade will also be held to celebrate the church's 30th anniversary, starting at 10:30 a.m.

County Scouts receive national heritage award

By ROBERT FRANCO

Brevard County Boy Scouts received a national heritage award at the Boy Scouts of America annual conference in Philadelphia. The award was presented for the preservation and maintenance of the Boy Scout Troop 1149's camping area, which has been in operation since 1922.

Second thoughts or benefits

In the sacred honor of Social Security, government employees should be covered.

Repeatedly, Social Security has been said to be the national benefit that all persons should have. However, in this modern world, it is difficult to understand why the government would not be part of this benefit. The government employees, who are the backbone of Social Security, should be covered.

Sensing the News

Some stories seem to be a bit too close to the bone. It is time for Social Security to think about the benefits it can provide to the government employees. These employees are the backbone of Social Security and should be covered.
