Dear Neighbors:
The members of Caddo Savings Association have received a handout offer for both excellent deals of Caddo's English wrench. They have decided to offer their members a chance to purchase these wrenches. The board has set up a special fund to purchase them and will give them away to members who order them. The board feels that this is a good way to promote the sale of Caddo's English wrenches.

Editorial:

Commissioner listens to public’s comments

I do not encourage people to talk all the time, as it can become tedious and monotonous. But when the opportunity arises, and you have something worth saying, I believe people should be encouraged to express their views. Commissioner’s meetings are public forums where citizens can voice their opinions on various matters. It is important for the commissioner to listen to the public’s comments, as they represent the community and its needs.

Now the meadow has a hole in it

The hole in the meadow may seem like a small issue, but it could have far-reaching consequences. If left unchecked, this hole could lead to erosion, flooding, and other environmental problems. It is important for the commissioner to take action and address this issue promptly.

Input sought on court, taxes

The Panola County Bar Association and the local government are seeking input on court and tax reforms. This is an opportunity for citizens to voice their concerns and ideas for improvement. It is important that the commissioner listens to the input and considers it when making decisions.

CHILD SUPPORT

I was shocked to learn that child support is a major issue in our community. It is important for the commissioner to address this issue and ensure that children are receiving the support they need. It is also important for parents to fulfill their obligations and make sure their children are taken care of.

The Pink Panther strikes again… Gifts from a mysterious friend help little Leslie recover

By Mary Alston

For a while it seemed like the Pink Panther would again strike a blow for justice. But unlike the original Pink Panther, Leslie, 8, was not a criminal. Leslie had just lost her only pet, her beloved parakeet, Pencils. Leslie had just received a new parakeet, Pencils II, from a mysterious friend who had been keeping an eye on Leslie all this time. Leslie was overjoyed to have a new pet, but she also missed Pencils. The new parakeet was a good replacement, but Leslie knew she would never forget her old friend. The Pink Panther, as always, remained a symbol of justice and a reminder to always be on the lookout for our friends, even when they are not around. Leslie was happy to have a new parakeet, but she knew she would never forget Pencils.

Sidewalk renovation to begin in August

As Eur Thacker

Canal Street is set to undergo a renovation project in August, according to the city officials. The project will involve the construction of sidewalks along the street, which will improve the safety and accessibility of the area. The project is expected to take several months to complete, and it will be financed through a mix of local and federal funding.

Two new restaurants coming to Carthage

As Eur Thacker

Ruth's Chris Steakhouse and In-N-Out Burger are planning to open restaurants in Carthage, according to local business owners. The new locations will be built near the intersection of Main Street and Willow Street, and they will offer a variety of menu options ranging from steaks and burgers to sandwiches and salads. The restaurants are expected to attract more visitors to the area and boost the local economy.

Emergency aid slated for poor

As Eur Thacker

The local government is planning to distribute emergency aid to individuals in need. Applicants must meet specific criteria to qualify for assistance, such as having a low income and being in a financial crisis. The aid will be provided through a combination of grants and loans, and it will be distributed through local community organizations.

Varied action set for Western Week

As Eur Thacker

The Western Week activities are scheduled to take place throughout the week, with a variety of events planned for each day. The events will include parades, rodeos, and music festivals, among other activities. Visitors are encouraged to attend and enjoy the festivities, which are a popular attraction for tourists and locals.

Entex gas rates reduced—again

As Eur Thacker

Entex Gas is reducing its rates for natural gas service again, effective immediately. The new rates are expected to lower the costs for customers, and it will be reflected in the next billing statement. The company is committed to providing affordable and reliable energy services to its customers.

Rehobeth gets loan for water

As Eur Thacker

Rehobeth has received a loan for water infrastructure improvements. The loan will be used to upgrade the water systems and improve the quality of the drinking water. The project is expected to take several months to complete, and it will benefit the residents of Rehobeth.

Chamber promotes Gates

As Eur Thacker

The Chamber of Commerce is promoting the work of Gates & Associates, a local real estate firm. The firm is known for its expertise in residential and commercial properties, and it offers a wide range of services, including sales, leasing, and property management. The Chamber encourages residents to support local businesses and consider Gates & Associates for their real estate needs.
