New chamber secretary introduced to board

Dan L. Hare has been named secretary to the chamber board of directors of the Palatka Area Chamber of Commerce. He replaces E. M. Williams, who was recently named to the post of city manager. The new secretary, who has a background in the business world, is expected to bring a fresh perspective to the chamber board's work.

Livestock Report

Current livestock reports are now available at the Palatka Area Chamber of Commerce. The reports cover the latest market prices and trends, as well as the most recent news and events in the livestock industry. They are updated weekly and are available to members and non-members alike. To receive a copy, simply visit the chamber's website or contact them directly.

City purchases facility for repair shop

The city of Palatka has purchased a facility for its new repair shop. The facility is located at 1234 Main Street, and it will be used to repair and maintain the city's fleet of vehicles. The city has contracted with a local company to perform the repairs and maintenance work, and the facility will be staffed by experienced technicians.

District clerk swamped, she says

Kathy Smith, the city's district clerk, says she is currently swamped with work. She is being asked to handle a variety of tasks, including processing permits, answering phone calls, and managing the city's records. She has asked for additional help to cope with the workload, and the city has agreed to provide additional staff.

City ban on trucks stirs debate

A ban on trucks in the city is the subject of debate among residents. Some are in favor of the ban, citing concerns about traffic congestion and air pollution. Others are against the ban, arguing that it will hurt local businesses and inconvenience residents. The city council will discuss the issue further at its next meeting.

Panola County Airport now named Sharpe Field

The name of the Panola County Airport has been changed to Sharpe Field. The change was made in honor of a local businessman who has been a long-time supporter of the airport. The new name reflects the airport's importance to the local community and economy.
Panola County oil, gas reports

A 3,800 ft. Panola County oil well is the latest to be brought under production in this field. The well is at the base of a 1 1/2 mile horizontal section, with the producing section at 100 ft. in depth.

The well is located on a 160 acre lease, with the company holding a lease on 80 acres. The well will be brought into production within a few weeks. The company has plans to drill additional wells in this field.

Every game crucial for Yellowjackets

Karnack could provide a lift

By Carl Chouinard

EVERY game in Karnack's district is going to be a big game for the remainder of Union Parish Public High School's season. The Yellowjackets, who have a string of tough district games ahead of them, will need every win to solidify their chances of making a strong run into the playoffs.

"Every game is crucial," said Yellowjacket head coach Bill Williams. "We have to keep winning to keep our playoff hopes alive." Williams noted that the team's upcoming games are against tough opponents, but he remains optimistic about their chances.

Beckville faces defending champ on road in next A outing

The Yellowjackets are preparing to face Beckville, the defending 1983 district champion, in the next-to-last district game of the season. It will be a crucial game for both teams as they battle for a possible playoff berth.

"This is a big game for us," said Beckville coach Pete Fouts. "We have to win to keep our playoff hopes alive, and a win against Karnack would put us in a strong position to do so." Fouts noted that the Yellowjackets are a tough team, but he thinks his team has a good chance of coming out on top.

A motivating factor for Beckville is the knowledge that a win against Karnack could set the stage for a potential playoff run. "We have to win to keep our season alive," said Fouts. "This is a big game for us, and we're ready to give it our all."
