Ceremony dedicates ‘LaSalle Parkway’
County road closing may have been illegal

The emergency meeting held in Catlettsburg on Monday night by the Boyd County Board of Education to discuss the closing of County Road 8 was attended by the citizens of the county. The meeting was called by the board to address the concerns about the road's future. The board stated that the road was closed due to safety reasons and that they had received complaints from the neighbors along the road who stated they were concerned about the road's condition. The board also mentioned that they were trying to find a solution to the problem and that they would keep the community informed on the progress of the situation.

On the eve of The Marriage of Figaro

The opera will be performed by the Boyd County Youth Symphony Orchestra on Saturday, January 15, at 8 p.m. The performance will be held at the downtown Beall's auditorium. The orchestra, composed of local youth, will perform a selection of classical music. The event will be conducted by Maestro Thomas Smith, who has been a long-time resident of Boyd County. The opera will feature a cast of rising local talents. The tickets are available at the door and are expected to sell quickly. The event is sponsored by the Boyd County Arts Council.
Krueger discusses race with local supporters

Richard C. Krueger, Republican candidate for the 7th District seat in Congress, met with officials from Monday night in Troy, N.Y., to discuss his campaign.

"I think it's important to have a link between the voter and the representative," said Krueger. "I'm running because I believe in the Republican Party and its values, and I want to be a voice for the people of New York." He added, "Our country is facing serious challenges, and I believe we need a government that can address them."

Nine vie for EFHS queen title

Eighteen high school students are vying for the title of EFHS queen this year. The election will be held during the first week of October. The queen will be selected from the senior class. The election will be announced in the school newspaper and on the radio. The queen will be chosen based on her character, leadership, and involvement in school activities. The election will be held over the weekend of October 8 and 9. The winner will be announced on Monday, October 9.

Winter weather

Winter weather has arrived in Carthage. The temperature dropped to 15 degrees last night, the coldest night of the season so far. The snow and ice have affected traffic, with several accidents reported on local roads. The school district has announced that all schools will be closed tomorrow due to the expected freezing rain. The weather is expected to continue throughout the week, with temperatures remaining below freezing. Residents are urged to stay indoors and monitor the local news for updates.

City truck ban to be discussed

A city meeting will be held this week to discuss the proposed truck ban in Carthage. The ban would restrict trucks from entering certain areas of the city. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 11, at 7:00 PM at the City Hall. The public is encouraged to attend and provide feedback on the proposed ban. The ban is intended to reduce traffic congestion and improve air quality in the city. The city council will vote on the proposal at the next meeting on October 18.

Assistant chief named for PD

A new assistant chief for the Carthage Police Department has been named. The assistant chief will be responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the department. The position is intended to provide leadership and support to the chief of police. The assistant chief will work closely with the chief to ensure that the department is operating efficiently and effectively. The assistant chief will be appointed at the next city council meeting on October 18.

Fishing trip winner completes prizes

The winner of the fishing trip has completed all the prizes. The winner was chosen from a pool of entrants who purchased tickets for the event. The winner received a trip to a remote lake, a fishing rod and tackle, and a three-night stay at a lakefront cabin. The winner was announced at the event on Saturday, October 8. The event raised money for local charities and was sponsored by the local fishing club.

Many qualify for three percent off Early taxpayers get discount

A new program has been announced to encourage early taxpayers to pay their taxes. The program offers a three percent discount for those who pay their taxes before the deadline. The discount will be applied to the total amount owed, reducing the burden on taxpayers. The program is intended to improve cash flow for the city and encourage people to pay their taxes on time. The program will be offered for the next tax year and is expected to be continued in future years.
