Hospital financial details questioned by County

It isn't every season that good news would come from the hospital, but that's exactly what happened when it was announced that the hospital would receive a $260,000 federal grant. The money will be used to improve the hospital's facilities and equipment, which will benefit the community.

Mayor cites improvements

The mayor of the city has been indicating significant improvements are taking place at the hospital. The mayor said, "We are making progress on the ongoing major project. We're proud of these accomplishments," and added, "This hospital is a tremendous asset to this community."

County to meet

The county commissioners are scheduled to meet next week to discuss the hospital's financial situation. They will be considering ways to improve the hospital's operations and facilities.

City okays bond issue

The city council has approved a bond issue to finance improvements at the hospital. The bond issue will enable the city to modernize the hospital's facilities and equipment.

Winter weather brings snow to county

The county has been experiencing a winter storm, with significant snowfall expected. The county is preparing for the impact of the snow, with residents advised to stay informed and take necessary precautions.

Talk-Line indicates citizens support of Hospital

By Faye Foster

Pamela County hospital is the hospital in Decatur and the only hospital in a county of 84,175 people. Some of the people who are in favor of it are the ones who have spent money on it. The hospital has been in existence since 1931. The hospital is open to all persons, but it is primarily serving the needs of the rural areas.

Christmas activities

This year and next season in the City of Galloway, there will be most festive Christmas festivities! The City Council has decided to have a Christmas parade, which will take place on the 24th of December. The parade will start at 3 PM and will end at 5 PM. All residents are welcome to participate in the parade, and there will be a special prize for the best-furnished float. The parade will be followed by a Christmas tree lighting ceremony in the City Park, where the tree will be turned on at 7 PM. Everyone is invited to attend this event and join in the festivities.

County traffic fatalities rise

By the month of November, the county reported 125 traffic fatalities, including Peoria County, has seen a rise in traffic fatalities. This is a 10% increase compared to last year's reported number. Seventy-five percent of these fatalities occurred during the month of November. According to city police reports, many of these accidents were caused by drunk driving, speeding, and driver distraction. The police department is urging drivers to remain vigilant and take necessary precautions to prevent accidents and fatalities. They are also reminding drivers to wear seat belts, follow traffic rules, and not to drink and drive.

Residents find Christmas lonely

And then, when the old man asked, "What would you like for Christmas?"
"I don't know anything I want," the child answered.

By Nola Albritton
The hard-working man emerged with activity during the Christmas season, with something new for the home or something special for the holidays. One look back on past Christmas and the history will recall the good old days of holiday cheer.

From outdoors and the small of baking delicious foods to the music of Christmas music in the home, the holidays mean a special season that may mean something for you and your family. Christmas means a special season to many, but the days leading up to Christmas may have been lonely.

We can all be part of the holiday cheer, even if we are alone. Christmas means a special season for many, but the days leading up to Christmas may have been lonely.

For those who have been alone during the holidays, Christmas can be a lonely time. The days leading up to Christmas may have been lonely. For those who have been alone during the holidays, Christmas can be a lonely time.
Lonely Christmas for elderly

The residents looked forward to their visits of Christmas, but the coronavirus pandemic has made it difficult for them to see their loved ones. The residents were not able to celebrate the holiday in the usual way, but they found other ways to celebrate. Some of the residents received visits from family members, while others received gift cards and other gifts. The staff members also decorated the facility with holiday decorations to help the residents feel more festive.

Christmas...a beautiful word with a magnificent meaning

Christmas is a word that means many things to many people. To some, it is a time of joy and celebration, while to others, it is a time of reflection and introspection. Christmas is a time to come together with family and friends, to enjoy good food and drinks, and to give and receive gifts. It is a time to remember the birth of a savior who brought joy and hope to the world.

Merry Christmas

The way things are stacking up, it looks like it’s going to be a great, big, beautiful Christmas time for everyone!!

First State Bank & Trust Company

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders.

And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David’s throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.

The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

Expression of faith is spirit of season

Christmas is a time of joy and happiness, a time of peace and goodwill. It is a time when we remember the true meaning of Christmas—Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who came to earth to save us from our sins. This Christmas, let us express our faith in Jesus Christ by giving love, kindness, and compassion to those around us.

Christmas treats
By Charles Dickens

The day was beautiful, the air was fresh, and the sun shone brightly in the sky. The children were all excited, for it was Christmas Day. They had been waiting all year for this day, for they knew that it would bring them joy and happiness.

The children were busy in the kitchen, baking cookies and cakes. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to bake. They were making cookies of all shapes and sizes, and they were decorating them with sugar and icing. They were making cakes of all kinds, and they were frosting them with cream and sprinkles.

The children were also busy in the living room, setting up the Christmas tree. They were putting up the ornaments, and they were decorating it with lights and garlands. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to decorate the Christmas tree.

The children were also busy in the backyard, playing with their toys. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play. They were making snowmen, and they were building forts. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play in the snow.

The children were also busy in the garage, cutting firewood. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to work. They were cutting wood for the fireplace, and they were piling it up in the garage. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to work.

The children were also busy in the kitchen, making a Christmas dinner. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to cook. They were making roasted chicken, and they were making stuffing. They were making mashed potatoes, and they were making gravy.

The children were also busy in the living room, listening to Christmas music. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to listen to music. They were listening to carols, and they were listening to hymns. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to listen to music.

The children were also busy in the backyard, playing with their friends. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play. They were playing hide and seek, and they were playing tag. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play.

The children were also busy in the garage, playing with their toys. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play. They were playing with their cars, and they were playing with their trucks. They were having a lot of fun, for they all loved to play.

Choosing child’s birthdate was happy Augury

The Christmas season is the time for joy, love and happiness. The birth of Jesus Christ is the reason for the season. Many years ago, a young couple, James and Mary, were living in a small village in Palestine. They had been married for many years and were ready to have a child. They had been trying to conceive for a long time, but to no avail. One day, an angel appeared to Mary and told her that she would be pregnant with a child who would be the savior of the world. Mary was overjoyed and accepted the news. She and James were happy to have a child, and they named the child Jesus. The child was born in a small stable, and the couple was left to care for the child on their own. They were poor and had no resources, but they were happy and grateful to have a child. The birth of Jesus was a happy Augury for the couple and for the world. It was the beginning of a new era, a time of hope and love.
